SPEAKER BIO

Randall Frietzsche
Enterprise Chief Information Security Officer (CISO)
Denver Health & Hospital Authority

Randall Frietzsche's ("Fritz") career started as a Law Enforcement Officer. With the technical aptitude, he moved into technology, starting as an MCSE on Windows NT 4.0. Over the next 22 or so years, he evolved to become the Enterprise Chief Information Security Officer for Denver Health and Hospital Authority. Holding a Master's in Cybersecurity, he also teaches cybersecurity risk management courses for Harvard and Regis Universities. As an ISSA Distinguished Fellow, Fritz's mission is to give back to our profession, to mentor, teach, speak, and write. Security is his vocation, avocation and passion. Fritz has presented at many security conferences, including Rocky Mountain Information Security Conference, Denver Evanta CISO Summit, SecureWorld, and the Louisville Metro Information Security Conference.
